BOOKS READ LIST

I have read 1300 books of the nearly 3000 that I own which I have supplied a list below. I also read about 300 Library books, which I failed to record and the ones that I can remember I am trying to buy copies of. I started reading seriously in 1985 and I have decided to publish the list of books here that I have read, as the Bibliography won't allow me to enter them under that section as the program restricts me to just put books that I have written.

This Is The List of Books I've Read Completely,

Up To 1330 Books.
