

The time is right to do what you like but be careful,

The time is right at twelve at night and be prayerful;

The time is right all throughout the day so be watchful,

The time is right for the Lords return so be thankful.

The time is right in rhyme and light so be on the listen,

The time is right by day or night but the world turns around;

The time is right to see what insight, so try to understand,

The time is right for the Lords returns so see clearly.

The time is right for fashion and plight so keep vigilant,

The time is right both day and night so watch out;

The time is right by broad daylight so don't hide in the dark,

The time is right for the lords return so don't be stark.

The time is right with a moment at hand so say thank you,

The time is right to stand and fight, so to him I surrender all;

The time is right to serve and sight so look to the light,

The time is right for the lords return so always be ready.

The time is right when the time is right so what's the time,

The time is right at ten past ten is my pen in rhyme;

The time is right when one hundred percent so all is idea,

The time is right for the Lords return so come perfectly clear.

The time is right at the end of the night so switch the light off,

The time is right but the hour uncertain so do your job,

The time is right but God must decide who is coming home,

The time is right for the Lords return to the crown and throne.

Signed,

The second coming
