

It's beautiful and hard and as high as you need,

To be an achiever of anything and everything you read;

You lead it so brilliantly and you're starting to believe;

Then there's a hope in hell that other people will receive.

It's mighty and strong and you're so very sure of yourself,

A thousand times a thousand and a hundred million myself;

You think you have a hope in hell of pulling it all off,

And you conceive the idea and it's comfortable and soft.

A hope in hell of winning and the right way to do it,

Really there is no such thing and your self is what's fit;

So you work like the devil and play so hard to get,

That you're food in your stomach is just one daily bet.

The chance of it all is a change of heart and mind,

To love and have faith and to search for and to find;

But the price must be paid at the end of every day,.

And the cost of it all, is a hope in hell for the way.

So speak piece of mind and share the peace in heaven,

So that you understand what or why you're a hundred and seven;

No hope in hell that money is better than food to eat,

So walk off your weight and feed food to your feet.

Put your best foot forward and first shake hands with yourself,

For the figure you want is a lot better than myself;

Now in the course of time there is a hope in hell,

A hope in hell to live on in the infinite eternity as well.
