

Unity and purity and it's all happily ever after,
Love, peace and joy and a marriage full of laughter;
The trouble with the real world is the strife before the answer,
When the question to the problem is, why do we take our chances?

Unity and purity and it's all about love and chastity,
Where God reigns in the city and the pity is the charity;
There's holiness in eternity, but for unity and purity,
We must clean everything to sterility and clearly see virility.

Unity and purity with chastisement in the face of adversity,
Where wedding bells ring out of curiosity at every university;
When God's forsaken inequity is permutated in antiquity,
And the requirements of liquidity is in the form of equity.

Unity and purity with chastisement in the face of adversity,
When he returns from delinquency to be master of the entity;
The beauty of believing in me, is conforming from the inadequacy,
Of diligent uniformity to the relinquishment of the contemporary.

Unity and purity is not a joke about innocent virginity,
But a resemblance of purgatory for the presence of the foreseen;
And the requirements of regeneration is creation of the story,
Where location and occupation is sentiment of the glory.

Unity and purity now a beautiful way to finish you the poetry,
With writing and the literature reflecting perfection in the picture;
Usually with the loveliness and brilliance of hospitality,
Where forgiveness of the sinner leads back to unity and purity.

Signed,

One more winner.