

The fruit cocktail is a drink of love and passion,
It is a mix of all the tropical fruits under the sun;
A cool delight of natures best to heavens mind.
It tastes so sweet going inside, in its being kind.

There's orange and banana, apple and mango,
Watermelon and rockmelon, passionfruit and pineapple;
Coconut and dragon fruit, kiwifruit and paw paw,
With cream on top a island treasure delight,

Well it was pure heaven as you sip and taste the drink,
Island paradise in a glass of capped with a cherry;
A straw and an umbrella to add to the spirit,
It was a brilliant delight to taste, swallow and drink.

Well words are not enough to describe this island drink,
To sip and to taste this tropical island drink;
As in itself it has meaning of life's breath to think,
For heaven comes in a glass that appears pink.

So as the boats come in to taste this island paradise drink.
Visitors are welcomed with a taste of this passionate thing;
With a twist of lime and lemon peel for zest and zeal.
And sugar coated honey to slip and slide down right.

The magnificent texture of a real drink, both pure and rich.
An exotic glass of delight to make visitors mix;
This tropical fruit cocktail was to die for or dare,
That in life passed on earth you can't find or compare.

Signed,

Too nice to miss
