

Parsifal On Life Style

INTRODUCTION

Life is like magic, money an unforgiveable love. It is all really just water off a ducks back out there on the lake. Lifestyle is sequentially your own idea or opinion of how and why things really are and how you live out your life with your own particular way or identity. We all need our own individual style in this life and Parsifal On Life Style is what this book is all about. With so many different and such broad ranges of facts, aspects and ideas to cover and write about, it has just opened up as a free for all. However we need to keep a bit of decorum and a few standards and restrictions in the state of mind as we go through and write this new book. It looks like an easy task or job, which I am more than up for once again, but there is some hard core topics to cover in this book which will surmount as a real challenge to meet the necessary criteria for the quality of justice to be done to these ideas. Lifestyle in itself is a very broad range of a set of topics to cover and excel in, to contain the right perspectives and a bright outlook on what life really is, the sunshine of the heart in a smiling portrayal of brilliant thoughts. Needless to say or go any further than not to acknowledge the dilligent effort that is required by reading for the writing itself, not as a selfish endeavour, but one that is centrally focused on the opinions of other people. Hopefully we will be able to discover what all these thoughts are and from what I call conscenous of ideas for what the general reality of thinking really is and has been established over the recent decades. Once again we will try and draw from the heart and mind a deeper depiction of life for what it really is, a happy place to be and a pleasant conditioning of thinking and ideas for enjoyment and discussion of thought. We only have to look and go searching in our own souls, for what the real picture of life is and how to change and adapt to its given generation of leadership and guidance for living. The beauty of it all is, that it all falls into place as we go along and we all get the picture in the end. But for now it is back to the drawing board to seek and search out what life holds for us all once again, as we go in and do another book of poetry, this one Parsifal On Life Style. I do hope that you all enjoy it and that you to may get something out of it just as I do by putting in the hard yards to do the work and thereby create the impact for the book itself. God Bless. Darel.

Leave me with what I own.

Life on a limb, I am inclined,

Eating out, wined and dined,

Good food, tomorrow its gone.

Signed,

Happy people.

6 Keeping To Yourself

Keeping to yourself,

Not bothering others;

What I have got is mine,

Yours is your own to.

Keeping to yourself,

Never mind me at all;

People just going their ways,

On the long and lonely road.

Keeping to yourself,

Signs of the times are gone;

The sun is shining what it shone,

Nothing new, no not at all.

Keeping to yourself,

My mind on what is mine;

Don't interfere, it hurts,

The truth of right and love.

Keeping to yourself,

You can have everything you own;

Just don't walk across that line,

All of mine, well that is just fine.

Keeping to yourself,

My books just sitting on the shelf;

Time to read and share around,

Prayer for air above the ground.

Signed,

Good Stewarts.

7 Do Others Matter?

Do others matter?

Times are tough and hard;

To lonely to go all the way,

By yourself all on your own.

Do others matter?

Don't be so selfish and greedy,

Of course other people matter,

Get things in perspective,

Do others matter?

When I am so focused on me;

Learn to get your eyes off yourself,

Look to God, read the books on the shelf.

Do others matter?

Concerned with your own wealth;

The ideal view of your health,

The big picture outside yourself.

Do others matter?

Take time to think and reflect;

See the beauty in the mirror,

But see other people first instead.

Do others matter?

Concerned about the cross;

Jesus died for you, you know,

Send God back your love.

Signed,

Hard to focus on self.

8 Hard As Hell

Hard as hell,

High as heaven;

Skies are beautiful,

Magma below the ground.

Drinking yourself silly,

The next day your head aches.

Hard as hell,

Life is a sweet love affair;

Don't get into trouble,

Problems are torture and torment.

All in the balance and measure.

Signed,

9 Nobodies Perfect Anyway

Nobodies perfect anyway,

This time, it is all you really need.

Nobodies perfect anyway,

God looks down from heaven,

Gives us His grace and love,

Mercy shining on us all.

Nobodies perfect anyway,

I am just doing my own day;

Accept friendship off caring others,

Somebodies wanting and waiting.

Nobodies perfect anyway,

Things all going the worlds ways,

Look to people and God who is wise,

There is a silver lining to every cloud.

Nobodies perfect anyway,

We all make mistakes, don't we;

Forgive and forget if you can,

Help people to get over it.

Nobodies perfect anyway,

It is just the way we look at it sometimes;

Focused on self and not others,

See outside yourself for a change.

Signed,

Getting away with it.

10 Whose Getting Their Own Way?

Whose getting their own way?

It is really not me all the time;

Money to pay for what you want,

Is this the way it really should be?

Whose getting their own way?

People insisting on what they want;

Force never helps, but proves evil,

Signs and wonders of the Devil.

Whose getting their own way?

As if I should really know or care;

Things should just work out the way they do,

Heaven is full of peace, hell only despair.

Whose getting their own way?

Don't all thoughts belong to God anyway?

Look to the one who is kind and good,

Then things might start going your way to.

Whose getting their own way?

They know very well who they are to;

Keeping to themselves instead of sharing alike,

It just seems that you are all in it for your own.

We all try hard to get what we can.

FINAL WORD

Free and Easy

Free and easy, that is the spirit. Perplexions and complexions, perfections and reflections. I hope that you might have seen a bit of the joy in this outgoing current work of art. A book of poetry is always a challenge to write and you never know how it will turn out until you get to the end of it. What come easy, really is quite hard and to anylyse the positives and negatives as to why that is so, is just so impractical to discuss and hard to digest. Nevertheless the results are now in and we have another book of poetry added to a fine repetoire of collective works. Down through the timelines of the ages in writing poetry, I have had the great priveledge of discussing the finer points of work in the industry of the arts. It is still a well twisted result of the finished work which actually does all work out in the wash of human unsderstanding and this case my mind of provocative thought. It still remains free and while the easy bit is in the completion, as the whole book of doing the work takes time and demands deep conscentration. However it all turns around and comes up new in the end I will sometimes still never know, all I know is that after all the work is done, there is a fresh range of new material for you all to read and take in. Whether you followed the work as it went along on just came in and read it at the end. Perhaps you have just worked your way through all the books and are reading this one just as any other one that you have read so far, I do hope that you have been enjoying all the reads since starting. I am not going to sit here and kharp or labour on any more points of love now. Somehow trying to certify and assert the deed already done. I do hope that you liked this one however and that you will come back soon for the next book as things progress along. God bless you all in your own selfish endeavours, hopefull they can be shared with others like this one has been attempted to be done. Thanks Again. Darel.
