

Parsifal's Peace Poems

Introduction

Peace is the main theme of this book, like it is the main theme of the Bible. "My peace I have and my peace I leave you with", is some of Jesus famous words in His meaning and purpose on earth. In fact the beautiful mind of God, is Christ's brilliant and perfect peace. The kingdom of God or heaven is one of peace, prosperity and lovingkindness, demonstrating all the goodness of God in all his glory. God is a God of love and like its sister word joy, peace is about harmony and an enjoyable place, where the situations there are as a feeling of calmness, stillness, relaxation and peaceful meaning, like paradise in heaven. It is really a gift that is too good to refuse and is all too often related to the mind and how we think and so it should be so, but it also means the prevention and stopping of fighting and wars going on, that there is a peaceful existence for all, through diplomacy and the prevention and care of people's lives. This is my prayer for you that you would work for peace and not destruction, that you would live at one with one another in consideration and affection, not hate, spitefulness, envy or jealousy. That you can be content with each other and tolerant of everything you have to come across. When acquiring another thing to your collection in life, it would be one of care, done with prayerful consideration as to how much you have and need in regards to your hoarding and greed, which is created by corruption and self-centeredness. We should aim to live with each other in a world of peace, where we need to be content with what we have got. I can not stress this enough, that the more you have got in the way of material things, does not make you happier in life, it just gives you more to worry and think about, for more work, strife and turmoil. Love God not money and peace will be yours, Love God and not things and you will experience the peaceful existence of heaven. Work for peace and not money or things and the whole kingdom of heaven will be yours, with everlasting life thrown into the bargain. Christ came to heal and save, not to destroy, but to give you His lasting and perfect peace. God Bless You as He should and may we glorify God as He would us in faith. To He Who Is Him, That Also Gives Life, may we go into this together, so as to love and search the world, to fathom the understanding of God's Peace and Mind, For Love Towards Each Other. More later. Darel.

Peace that will last forever;

Thinking of you all the more now;

Love and blessings from the holy cow,

Spiritual milk and blessings from God.

Trying to write to make things good;

Looking around to see wherever I can,

To help God out with His heavenly plan.

All things good and the way of God;

I love it dearly when Gods plan comes together,

All things clear, not muddy and merky.

Piece by piece things fall into place,

By the grace of God and love of His face;

A grace and space for each and all,

On this our earth, the spinning ball.

Piece by piece things fall into place,

All the best love and care for what goes where;

Peace, love and kindness, mercy be,

All God's goodness and love for me.

Piece by piece, things fall into place,

In the right time and in the right way;

See where things go and put them there,

In the right palce for God to care.

Piece by piece things fall into place,

God loving us and we loving Him;

Everything good, the way it should be,

Peace love and kindness and the blessing of Thee.

Peace and persitance will see you right on;

The right light, the true light, of God in the sky,

Perfect love, pure love, splendidly bye.

Peace and persistance, at home to try,

The right love, the true love;

Working towards the beauty to fly,

Homeward bound at the end of the sky.

Abounding freely for all those who try;

God in the atmosphere, looking down from above,

To a people who love Him and work for His love.

Holy and blameless remembering His name;

Heaven comes to mind for all that you have done,

The work of your efforts and grace of God's love.

Doing what you have to, to get the job done;

Love in your heart with the work of kindness,

The blessings of honour, freedom of heart.

14 Peace and Protection

Peace and proection, God's loving heart,

Kindly looking after you right from the start;

Grace and well being, mercy for all,

The love and forgiveness of peace and protection.

Peace and protection, heavens lovely, calling, being home,

A sure and safe place, with God in front above;

Safe and secure in the knowledge of His love,

God sure and boundful conditions of everything good.

Peace and protection, the knowledge of the holy,

Doing what is right and staying out of trouble;

All the beauty of creation, forgiveness since the fall,

Forgetting what is evil and remembering God's love.~^

Peace and protection, the problem of sin,

The Devil watching out for someone to win,

Stay with the truth, the peace and the way,

The life for the living, your heavenly home.

Peace and protection, the pleasure of love,

Safe and secure, the loneliness of yourself;

Stay in the light, don't go out in the dark,

Live a long time, not caught out doing wrong.

Peace and protection, the longest of years,

Been sinning and winning, now comes the tears,

Peace and protection, Your friend by your side,

The right one, the true one, the one you can trust.

Signed,

15 Peace and Persecution

Peace and persecution, money in the bank,

You think you are safe, but God thinks your not;

Love and my surroundings, only God knows,

The true heart, the loved ones, nothing is odd.

Then comes the rain and the pain of sin,

Your caught full of yourself, God sees the heart;

People having a go at you, nothing is right or sacred,

The wind of destruction, the safety in God.

Peace and persecution, they are tangibly opposed,

But a pair of tormentors that leave you exposed;

Seek for the right light, the love and life of God,

Not high and dry, out on your own.

Peace and persecution, not all of the joy you want,

Having a go at you and not in God's love;

Leaving you hurting, without a care, turn and ask God,

You need to come back to Jesus and talk to God in prayer.

Peace and persecution, you left the church,

Not happy and crying, you are out of God's favour;

Your hurt and your worrying, a bad place to be,

Lost in the safety, but not eternity, suffering for Him.

Signed,

Return to God.Ã,Â

16 Peace and Peaceful

Be still and quiet and know God,

Content and satisfied in your mind;

Enjoying the good life and peaceful plenty,

Grace and mercy in loving faith.Ã,Â

A bit of respect for God and others;

Joy in the heart and peace of mind,

Peace for the peaceful, longsuffering joy.

Signed,

17 Peace and Beauty

Peace and beauty in His glorious kingdom,

Love and kindness, passion and feeling;

Joy and forgiveness, what life is about,

Confiding in one another, without any doubt.

Peace and beauty, look full in His face,

A wonderful time and perfect embrace;

Collecting your thoughts, I think I am free,

Bended and bowed to Him on one knee.

Peace and beauty, it is the love of God,

Keeps us going, looking into His grace;

Working with words, things become so real,

People going places, good things are ideal.

Peace and beauty, all the goodness of life,

Struggling with yourself, then comes a wife;

Glorious beauty, perfect peace of mind,

All of God's goodness, in peace He shines.

Peace and beauty, love fills my head,

Treasures of the earth, heaven instead;

The kingdom of kindness, peace and beauty win,

The dead and rotten people, dead in their sin.

Peace and beauty, love fills the air,

Woman and their loveliness, beauties delight;

The kingdom of God, living in the light,

The best of everything, the beauty of peace.

Signed,

Wonderful Creation.

18 Peace and Perfection

Peace and perfection, nothing odd or wrong,

People living out their time, gloriously long;

Love is like an ocean, peaceful and full,

Glory in the morning, sun shibning warm.

Peace and perfection, everthing true and right,

God is good, glory in His sight;

Peace like a slow moving river or steam,

Running ever freely, in your hopes and dreams.

Peace and perfection, things just the way they're meant,

Glorious heaven, love all heaven sent;

Looking the mirror, you see yourself,

Reflecting in God's Glory, I see myself.

Peace and perfection, money heaven sent,

The problems of earth, best left in bed;

Shining through the clouds, God reigns on high,Ã,Â

The truth of the situation, now comes to light.

Peace and perfection, beauty there as well,

The crooks and wicked people, all go to hell;

Give God your life, live on higher ground,

The beauty of perfection, now lost and found.

Peace and beauty, God fills the earth,

Like water falling down a waterfall;

God of heaven loves to forgive,

Perfect creation, now crisp and clear.

Signed,

Mirror Image.

19 Peace and Production

A piece of the production, peace is to me,

Poems in the process of peace and production;

Working like a trogen, spitting out verse,

No time to relax, no time to reverse.

Is there a quiet time, somewhere by myself,

Somewhere where people will care and not attack;

Somewhere to look, listen and be still,

Somewhere where I can be peaceful and tranquil.

Peace and production, just going down the line,

Another place and people, another place and time;

Looking around to find out just somewhere,

God is a genius, not some ordinary dill.

I know he works hard, I try to keep up,

Joy of a fountain, a drink from the cup;

Tireless and blameless, In God I lie down,

The rest my weary head from the production line.

Peace poems and plenty, all in the peace process,

The production line of heaven, peace in the conquest;

Where the river flows, as lines go on down the page,

The production line of life, is peace and its purpose.

The promise of fulfillment, peace in the project,

Trying to attain, some peaceful heavenly object,

The production line of poetry, peace is the answer;

God's prime objective, is to rhyme peace in poetry,

That the time lines of life are lightening the production.

Signed.

God's peaceful purpose.

20 Peaceful Reliance

The reliance on God, a peaceful good reason,

Heaven is the answer, seasons are just pleasing;

The peaceful reliance, God's own requirement,

Loving one another, just doing good forever.

My self reliance, no valid reason,

Just pleasing myself, no sense or feeling;

God has the capacity, to look after everyone,

I keep going on choosing, my own explanation.

A peaceful reliance, God stay with us forever,

Give us the answer, the victory in heaven;

The call of the wild, Lord I want to go my own way,

Teach me reliance on God, no independance.

The accounting book of God, Am I on the roll,

When the trumpet sounds from heaven, Will I be called?

Looking around for love, your reliance is a requirement,

The compass tool of life, God's weather and direction;

I look wherever, God you are asking for reliance,

If I could only help myself, I wouldn't need you forever.

I know it is not the case, God, I need you more than ever,

My independance struggles, when I am on my own God;

My reliance is on you Lord, more and more than ever,

Now and forever Lord, my reliance is on you God.

Signed,

The song of the birds.

21 Peaceful People

Peaceful people, beautiful people,

The grace of God and God's forgiveness;

Trying in vane to save themselves,

Jesus Christ, if they would only listen to reason.

The answer is simple and sweet and easy you know,

Going your own way, you won't learn and grow;

Looking to God, He is above all your fears,

He is immortal, you no longer need tears.

Peaceful people, you just can't save yourself you know,

You need God, through Jesus Christ His son;

He came down from heaven and died on the cross,

Your reliance should be on Jesus and God above.

Happily living, in peace and in joy of heavens love,

Peaceful people, they just don't do their bit;

Sitting so quietly, in their silently effort fit,

They love what they are doing, but are no good for it.

Peaceful people, you don't hurt anybody in the process,

But while you are doing nothing, you are no good for God;

Look out for what you can do to work for God and peace,

Using your time wisely and not just giving up on it.

God has time for people to sit and be quiet,

As people pray in peace for the good of God's earth;

Prayer is a way that we can all talk to God, as peaceful people,

Peaceful people get the idea, that we are not meant to be lazy.

Signed,

Peace and quiet, while I listen to some music,

The sound and joy of pleasant thoughts in mind;

Peace and quiet and stillness, peace divine,

Peace and quiet, loves knowledge of the calm.

Peace and quiet, so that there is no harm,

Peace of mind, keeping quiet to myself;

Peace and quiet, not making a sound at all,

Sitting at home silently, in the peace of night.

Working soft and slowly, in the peace and quiet,

Enjoying all the goodness of God in peace;

While I have been in a peace of mind to think about,

Loving the quietness and beauty of a picture in my head.

The beauty of the mind in the peace and quiet,

The knowledge of being in the holiest of the holies;

The holy is being a place of peace and quiet,

The loveliest of the lovely, the peace and quiet.Ã,Â

Peace and quiet, looking for a house and home,

A place to belong and enjoy the peace and quiet;

Grace and mercy, enduring plenty of peace and quiet,

Eternal palces, being in their peace and quiet.

Enjoying God's creation, love is a good thing;

Lost in the dark ages, nothing left to find;

Peace and prosperity, the joy of answered prayer,

People living in heaven, all high on air.

Peace and prosperity, all a millionaire,

What is left important, kids learning how to love;

Peace and prosperity, the gift from God above,

Working for a living, God grant us peace.

Loves beauty in action, heavens love release,

The joy of all creation, peace and prosperity for all;

Peace and prosperity for all those who read,

And write for all others to try and recieve.

Peace and property, heavens owning only home,

House and land and business, factory in the making;

Books on every subject, for the library leading,

You have got to know, learn and teach something.

Peace and property, people doing things properly,

Looking for the right ways, straight and true;

Peace and property, everything looking good,

A song for the heart, soul and mind.

Peace and property, peace and kind,

God is good for all time, what is on His mind;

Peace and property, Government registration,

The law of the land and political legislation.

Keeping the peace and a new land release,

Build yourself a property, house and land package;

Somewhere you can keep things and live,

Peace and property, something that God can give.

You have to own it, according to the peice of paper,

You can buy or sell it if you like with exchange rates;

Peace and the property, it is yours if you need it,

Tell me where you want it and it is yours therefore to keep.

Peace and property, houses and homes forever,

Do the right thing and learn how to keep it;

Do the wrong thing and you have broken the law,

Without a piece of property, you have no peace instead.

Signed,

Ownership Rights.

28 Peace and Priority

Peace and priority, things have some importance,

People wants things first but there is a right order;

I must get what I want, but it pays to have patients,

People are important, as long as things are in priority.

It pays to keep things in their priority,

So everything gets done by its importance;

Working through one thing at a time,

In the logical right order of its priority.

I can place things in order between one and a hundred,

Slowly and methodically working through the backlog;

To get everything done in God's good time,

Even in writing poetry of verse and rhyme.

I have a long list of things to get done,

Time to write them all in their priority;

Prayer and God's help will sort out the order,

Of course all being done, we just start all over again.

God help me get through this long list of things,

I can't do it alone, the joy that God brings;

Seeing things clearly just how to get all things done,

Doing then the right way, in the right order.

God has priorities, it would be good if all took note,

Maintaining certain liberties of what goes on in church;

God has priorities for people and their lives,

Give them back to Him, to love and use and bless.

Signed,

Gracefully Letting God.

Caught in adultery, he writes on the ground;

Where are your accusers now, he said,

Tropical beaches, full and free,

Coconuts falling from the trees abundantly;

Aqua water washing up on the golden shores,

Sand so white and beautiful, fruit would open then.

Tropical beaches of paradise, juice to sip and drink,

Beautiful places on uncharted islands;

Enchanted to supply all your needs,

As you read along upon these lines.

Tropical goodness, the passion of paradise;

Love being made in heaven all night,

Alone on a beach, so beautiful and bright.

Gloriously celebrated in His wonderful kingdom;

A piece of paradise in a tropical wilderness.

On the island of a tropical paradise,

Whether you are with me or weather you are not,

On the island of your dreams in heaven;

You live there in a tropical paradise,

Life is a slice of paradise, sun tan skin deep.

Beauty on the surface, terror comes and goes,

The action of the island paradise;

Is a tropical storm with winds that blow,

Tropical conditions now settled and in flow.

Signed,

33 Island Resort

I was thinking of Hamilton Island,

Then I went over to Hayman Island;

I had been to Daydream and South Mole,

Kepple and Frazer Island.

The trouble was I needed an island paradise,

I did not know which island resort to choose;

I was eating and feasting in heaven,

In a paradise of tropical perfection.

Here I am as I write at home,

Wondering God will take me now;

To my tropical island paradise resort,

A place to eat and drink and sleep.

It could be Pacific Islands,

Fiji, Neumea, Samoa or Tonga;

Cook Islands, Mauritous or The Maldives,

With island resorts and coconut trees.

Golden and white sand beaches,

Pools, bars and restaurants;

Girls wearing tiny bikinis,

Going to bed or sleeping under the stars.

God is good and gives us everything,

To enjoy while under the sun;

Be careful not to overindulge,

Love is fun, but not getting burnt.

Signed,

Lost in paradise.

Happily, merrily, going along to see;

Have a good look at yourself in the mirror,

Recreation abounding, according to Him,

Everything working, right, straight and true.

35 Parsifal's Paradise

Grow up, get married, have family,

All good and wonderful things;

The paradise plan, perfect world,

To buy a house and have kids.

Lost in a world of medieval and disease,

Nothing going right, problems your believing;

Schizophrenia a dillusion, not feeling real,

This is the situation, learning how to deal.

The reality is a mix between the both,

Troubles come and go, everything should be right;

Such is the way of work and life,

Problems in perspective, not too much strife.

Time and age and money to spend,

God's good gift of life for those to live;

Peace and the plenty, in the picture of yours,

Parsifals paradise, perfection, people, poetry.

Correct and true, peoples smiling faces,

I love the idea of God being home in church.

Wondering or philosophising, what is life about?

Looking for reason, everything in season;

Life and the farm, life is good and sweet,

Loving and living, things more complete.

Peaceful paradise, lost on an island,

Dreaming and waiting, a boat now coming;

Sailing off into the sunset, around the world,

Coming home to land, a place in the street.

Peaceful paradise, life by a stream,

Awake or asleep, a wonderful dream.

The river wanders on down and by;

A tree drinking water, roots by the sea.

There is people waiting to get in there;

To see all the beauty of God in heaven,

Are you trusting Jesus or jewels of earth?

Is He the precious gem you have set your heart?

Do you have peace and the love of God?

Have you found Jesus or treasures on earth?

Is there peace in a jeweled crown of gold?

Are you patient with things of old?

Is your name in the book of life?

Or still searching for treasures to make you rich?

There is a place in His kingdom for you,

Be reassured God has still got something new;

Jewels are nice to see for a short time,

But the peace of God will last forever.

Peace and jewels? the question still is asked,

To be happy on earth or rich in God!

Grace and mercy are treasures themselves,

Peace, an everlasting fountain of Jesus love.

Surely goodness and mercy will follow me all of my life,

And I shall dwell in the house of the Lord forever;

I don't need piles of endless jewels,

I need the love and joy of peace within.

To claim the victory and really win,

To go to heaven and leave my skin.

And coming back to the place of all things good.

The kingdom of God is one of good,

All things right and in good order;

Righteousness, faithfulness and joyfulness,

Being fulfilled in His kingdom to come.

Signed,

The coming king.

56 Pearls and Peace

Pearls and peace, the oyster and shell,

A place of being where all things are well;

A string of pearls around the neck,

Peace for all without blemish or speck.

Peace and pearls, God's perfect truth,

The beauty of natural splendour in white array;

Dazzling and bright on a silver tray,

Rolling around in God's wonderful way.

Peace and pearls, the gates of heaven,

Paradise behind the golden path and hid;

God in His palace with room for all,

Who call on His name and worship Him.

Peace and pearls, life's precious treasure,

Eternal, abundant as peaceful pleasure;

Good gifts from Him unto His whoever,

Goes the whole way through any weather.

Peace and pearls, the treasure of heaven,

Joy, love and peace going on there forever;

Peace and pearls, the knowledge of beauty,

Men and women all doing their duty.

Peace and pearls all round and perfect,

To serve and work for God's ongoing kingdom,

A fashion of wonder at each the year ending.

The beginning of a time into the new ages starting.

Signed,

Timeless light.

57 Life Eternally

Life eternally, all abundant and free,

Good to be you and good to be me;

The cross of ages, the standing tree,

Holy and righteous and true to see.

Christ paid it all, for you and me,

Life abundant, pleasant and free;

Eternally reigning on high above,

In the kingdom of God and in His love.

Life eternally, wonderfully true,

Beautifully blue and all brand new;

Flown and flew and blown away to;

Christ coming through the clouds for you.

Life eternally, the truth of what is up above, ã, Â

Filled up with joy and full of His love;

All of God's goodness, the kingdom of God,

Coming down to you on the wings of a dove.

Life eternally, gracefully great,

Enough food to eat on your plate;

The earth turning around on Christ we wait,

The world of wonder full of God's weight.

Life eternally to reign on high in heaven above,

Filled with the treasures of grace and peace;

The mercy of kindness and freshness of due,

In His kingdom of righteousness with all things new.

Signed,

Splendid kingdom.

58 God Is Good

God is good and God is great,

Peace and forgiveness and love relate;

Kindness in heart, peace in mind,

Joy with love for faith to find.

Good is good, that is for sure,

His gifts of love and goodness more;

Shedding joy with toys for kids He brings,

Lots of lovely and wonderful things.

God is good and God is love,

Looking down from heaven above;

Giving grace and mercy to those of His,

The treasures of heaven in loving bliss.

God is good and in Him I adore,

God abides with peace and joy;

I hate the pit and hell and Hades,

She can keep all the horror she made me.

God is good and is always on call,

The beauty of life on this spinning ball;

God is love and that is nearly all,

Grace in the library with books on the wall.

God is good and gives us signs,

Of life and peace and all things nice;

His heavenly kingdom is eternal life,

His church His wife without the strife.

Signed,

Restored and forgiven.

59 Peace and God

Peace and God, a very good thing,

Love and joy and peace He brings;

Restoring man to heavenly realms,

Giving gifts in songs and films.

Peace and God, does not destroy,

But creates us equal to employ;

From beauty to ashes, time will heal,

Restoring everything, a banquet meal.

Peace and God, with Him on high,

Rising above the eternal sky;

Where bird and plane do almost fly,

Lest I perish and in Him I die.

Peace of God in heaven above,

All of His goodness, God is love;

A picture of paradise's, perfect splendour,

Granting wishes and prayers surrendered.

Peace of God, the best is found,

The rising debt below the ground;

Listen to the music and its sound,

In peace you find God all around.

Signed,

Perfect surrender.

60 Heaven and Hell

The answer is peace, if you must know,

Not the money you grab to keep in flow;

Mercy is sweet but peace we need,

To stop us from all the unwanted greed.

Heaven and hell, how can it be,

With Thee, Thy love so tender for me;

So sweet, so perfect with endless feed,

All I write and all the books I read.

Heaven and hell for sinners and saints,

Stained glass windows, arts in paints;

Working for Jesus is good and quaint,

Suffering for sin, hearts not to faint.

Save us from these pits of hell,

Where Satan and sinner and evil dwell;

Raise up up to be on high with Thee,

High in dear heaven, without no fear.

Heaven and hell, God wish us well,

So we can see what is right and tell;

Faith and prayer in Thee I draw near,

To compare with Thee and joy a tear.

I won't want to fade and flee from Thee,

But hide in your love eternally and endlessly;

The beauty you give us, God's gift of love,

Forgives and restores us to Him above.

Signed,

Forget me not.

Two Bonus Poems

Heavenly Paradise

Heavenly paradise, beauty for all,

Turning around on this spinning ball;

Creation surrounding us with good for all,

As God reigns in heaven and on is call.

Heavenly paradise, our duty to serve,

To love and fix our uncertain nerve;

A topical place of sun and sand,

Tropical coconut trees on islands grand.

Heavenly paradise, peaceful bliss,

Girls who wait for a humble kiss;

Drinks of juice and fruit salad free,

The peace of mind from healthy lifestyles.

Heavenly paradise, quietness and still,

Beauty within us and our minds all filled;

Water to swim in and water to drink,

Peace of mind for all to think.

Heavenly paradise, time on our hands,

To work love and serve the king of glory;

To honour and worship the king of this story,

Putting us in our place of full nobility.

Heavenly paradise, the place of perfection,

Lovingly knowing all the things of His kingdom;

The secret revealed of His heavenly creation,

World without end, God never to leave us.

Signed,

Peaceful being, being peaceful.

The Gift

The gift of God is a heavenly thing,

Of life everlasting and abundant;

The treasure is in the son of man,

Jesus Christ our God and peace plan.

Heavenly father, almighty God,

The gift of life, you made the grade;

You saved me from my own disaster,

Your the prayer, the peace, heaven's land.

You held me up when I was down,

You lifed me high above the clouds;

You gave the gift of life to me,

You loved me before I could love you back.

You watched me walk through troubled times,

You showed me the way to heavens home;

You pulled me up from deep in the pit,

You gave me the gift and heaven and peace.

You gave me the salvation of saving grace,Ã,Â

You lead me out of the dark and depth;

You restored me your righteousness,

You gave the gift of your only son.

You gave your gift of love to me,

You taught me how to read and write;

You showed me truth and the way of light,

You helped me see that God is right.

Signed,

For Forgiveness.

Final Word

The Heart Of Peace

The heart of peace is both a joy and a blessing, filling our hearts and minds with a calmness and a stillness. Learning to love The God who created us for full salvation and restoration of mind and soul. The heart of peace is one for love and mercy, establishing the endless position of stability and reassurance in the lives of people who love Him. So that we can be content and satisfied with each aspect and position we take in life as a set of circumstances to live with. This book has been and a joy to write, giving me peace of mind and pleasure as I tried to find words to further establish God's kingdom on earth as one of peace. God grant us a heart of satisfaction and contentment as we all try and seek His heart and direction for His purpose in our lives. God create and restore total peace on earth to give us all safe and holy places to live in. We should all try and aim to do the work that you have given us to do to make your world a better place to live and be. Grant our souls perfect peace in your contentment God as we seek to save the lost and serve you better each and every day. If you have given us peace God, help us to maintain it and sustain it for the glorification of your kingdom here on earth. Fill our hearts and souls and minds continually with your joy and peace, so that we can worship you in the full magnitude of our minds and satisfaction in our hearts to do your will and purpose with all the more reason. Finally thank you God for giving me this book for my readers to take in, read and indulge upon, that you might have blessed them through my work and endeavours to please you and them, in and with some kind of fashion of this my service. I commit this now to you God for the enjoyment of the readers and also to honour and love you more God, as we all seek to try and work for the greater purpose on earth and that is to find, seek and ask for peace. I hope you all enjoyed the read and that you can give back to God for what he did for you as well as me and that is to establish a heart to work for peace. That you may know peace in and on your minds endlessly and The Love of God unceasingly and never ending, who is the provider and giver of all peace. The heart of peace, is the mind of God's peace around the whole wide world for all on earth now today.
