

Out for a night on the town for a few drinks,
The Pub or The Club has a lot of night life attractions;
With bands and good food for delightful enjoyment,
Being careful to drive home under the limit.

With pokies and gaming and all sorts of live music,
The beauty is finding a girl to take home with you;
Love and perfection of all the good things,
Things of enjoyment and loves lost in time.

Let's eat Italian or Asian or maybe the roast,
All the good food under the sun and a day at the beach.
Clubs and Pubs celebrate good food with wine, beer and spirits,
A mix of well know drinks for you to consume.

An life is like that, feeling free and careless,
Enjoying the good times and life and all is superfluous;
The best is yet to come when you win the $20,000 raffle,
Or maybe a new car to drive home alive.

The atmosphere is real life and happiness is left lingering around,
All enjoying a good time and loneliness lingering;
For the best is yet to come in a world of good taste,
And the Club has the menu and the food not to waste.

Now as the night comes to an end and you have a new found friend,
Take her home safely and enjoy getting to know;
Her love and personality that you met when you were out.
For all the good of God in celebrating life out and around.

Signed,

All enjoyment.
