

Sing me a song like a lullaby,
Sing me a song of sixpence;
Sing me a song for people going by,
Sing me a song for a long time.

Can you imagine what's really understood,
About people and problems and time;
Or about trouble and tribulation of territories,
Or things that are caught up for crime.

Sing me a song if you are a friend of mind,
Sing me a song of as a forever love story;
Sing me a song it's so good to be alive,
Sing me a love song forever or I'll die.

I can imagine that passionate song,
A verse that can play, that is all mine;
Sing me a song for all the entertainment,
As long as it has played on my mind.

Signed,

For a friend