

Amidst the goodness of life and the absolute beauty of living,

Comes the atrocities of Genocide and the dehumanisation from giving;

For the lovely ways of suburban city lifestyle comes the negative side of the coin,

Where brutal, masochistic slaughter and rape, pillage are for the dictators enjoyment.

It is against all human rights and the laws of love for life people have,

It is senseless killing for pleasure and no justification or reason being given;

It means deaths by the millions and it is an unheard of despicable crime,

It is the meaningless slaughter of people for rich pleasures, treasures and pride.

There are terrible ramifications and the explanation will never be right,

There is no acceptable answer for the humiliation, destruction and strife;

There is no possible way it can be allowed or tolerated in God's sight,

There is no humane outcome and no reflection on the words I write.

Genocide is the evil dictator's way to build up his own ego and pride,

Leaving a trail of dead bodies and corpses after rape, murder on the side;

For the road in one of death, evil and destruction where no one wins in the end,

As the reason I write this in pain and suffering is to offer support as God's friend.

I won't let it happen to anyone but what in the world can one person do,

Is there anyone really out there who will listen and help put an end to it to;

There is no way I can condone it or allow it but God if you were only here,

You'd wipe out each and every dictator and kill them without any fear.

But from being the one instigator for who wants to see the whole world living right,

I ask you now God my father in prayer to put this evil to an end by night;

I know that you are the one who can do it and the whole earth trusts in your name,

And through the hells and furnace of genocide Christ's light shines with its fame.

Signed,

God's truth wins