

The reason for the proposal is to propose being good and prosperous,

When the prosperity of portrayal is pretending to be preposterous;

A purposeful porpoise is like a tortoise being proportionate,

As the preposition is a supposition to the seasonal proposition.

For the question to be proposed is a pledge of marriage,

As the message for the millions is the cost of the carriage;

When the money is proportionate to the work to be prayed for people,

And the minister produces primarily the sharp and pointed steeple.

As the beauty is in the holiness of virgin purity and love,

When the best is all upon us and is the brilliance of God above;

And the exchange of vows is rewarded by the cross of interaction,

As the ability to reproduce is certified contractual manufacturing.

And the manufacturer is the manifestation of eternal reign,

Where the intercourse of dialogue is understood instead of pain;

For the reproduction and replication is the quantity of infinite faith,

As the love that you are exchanging is completely left to sayeth.

Now the perfection of the argument is reflection of arrangement,

When all the right connections or selected for the containment;

And the marriage bed is righteous for the constant supplication,

Where the conception of the orgasm to the egg is sustained.

Well the suitability is conceptualized in ideal realization,

When the attraction of the opposites is matched by containment;

And the susceptibility of the interaction s the children in the making,

As the model we all follow is the biblical law of all remaining.
