

Parsifal Walking Talking

INTRODUCTION

God In Prayer

As we come to this new book, let us come in an attitude of prayer to God who looks down on us and sees everything that we do. God up there in heaven minding out for us and watching everything we do to see that we come to no harm and are in His ever loving and protecting arms. We really do owe him a lot for the provision of our lives, His caring about everything that we do and He even knows what I will write in every poem in this book or any other for that matter. He is at the very heart of the situation and the truth comes shining and streaming out of Him as he feeds me the words to write as I work my way down the pages. Walking, talking is about a conversation with God, when you go for a walk on your own, He is there with you, when I am writing down the words along the lines of the pages, He is leading and guiding my hand and caring about my attitude of mind for accomplishing His purposes in the dialogue and discussion of the poetry. Walking talking is that attitude of prayer while writing of walking about in the mind of your life and communicating the words of heavens sight into hearts and minds of others, as well as giving it back into the mind of God who should be the head of our lives for His blessings and transformation of our hearts. The work evolves and becomes an alive reality as it runs down the pages, walking and talking to us in deep discussion and dialogue of written words and human inspiration of imaginery concepts that come into play as the work developes and digresses in the meaningful relationship with God. God in prayer is not only sitting quietly and reading or writing, it is those personel and intimate moments with a God who cares about us and loves us deeply. Thoughts just can't help come to mind when you are walking closely to God, talking with Him on an individual level for the greater purposes of all of us human beings who are to give God the time of day. He who might have held in our hearts the perfect peace of His allmighty loving compassion to these, the beautiful souls of His heavenly kingdom. God bless you as you read this new book, Parsifal Walking Talking as I now try to venture to write this book, trying to do justice to the caring God of the Bible and the world. Darel R. McAllister.

20 What Did We Say

What did we say,

Where are you going?

End up somewhere,

Good to get there.

What did we say,

You remember to me;

Listening you said,

Hear what I say.

What did we say,

Will we meet again;

All of us together now,

Both meeting in the street.

What did we say,

Somewhere down the road;

Lighten my heavy load,

The burden is bad as hell.

What did we say,

Going back to heaven again;

Meeting people in church,

Still keep up the search.

What did we say,

Signed,

CHAPTER 3 Running Along Lines

21 Words Dictate

Words dictate,

And reciprocate;

Responding affectionately,

Not happy rejecting things.

Words dictate,

Climatic experience;

Understanding the times,

Relative statements.

Words dictate,

Relationship assured;

Righteousness revealed,

Religious rigamortus.

Words dictate,

As does money and time;

Writing along in the line,

As long as the weather is fine.

Words dictate,

Meaning more work;

Decisions of worth,

Pressing on hard.

Words dictate,

Easy life you think;

See what things really are,

Truth reveals relativity.

Signed,

How to respond.

22 Watch The Path

Watch the path,

Where you have trod;

Steps where you have been,

Backwards, forwards.

Watch the path,

Confronting the truth;

Well worth the proof,

Righteousness ways.

Watch the path,

Working ahead of yourself;

Walking by myself,

Right along the whole way.

Watch the path,

Time reveals its ways,

Righteousness displays,

Money the creature to deal with.

Watch the path,

Endless lines of fun;

Living under the sun,

Making sure your true one.

Watch the path,

Where it winds and leads;

Along the lines you read,

Everything all you need.

Signed,

Loving care.

23 Connect The Dots

Connect the dots,

Doing the puzzle;

Ox and the muzzle,

Life's not a hassel.

Connect the dots,

Putting pieces together;

Filling in the blanks,

Starting to get the picture.

Connect the dots,

Animals and scenes;

Pens, ink and cleans,

Whatever the truth means.

Connect the dots,

Understanding the times,

Safe as a bank that primes,

All in the centre of a rhyme.

Connect the dots,

Find out where your going,

Things you have been doing,

Glueing, trueing and renewing.

Connect the dots,

Found the answer yet;

Means kinds of bets,

Bed, sets and gets.

Signed,

My partner.

24 Time Comes And Goes

Time comes and goes,

Waves wash back out on shore,

Life somewhere down the line,

Happy memories of where.

Time comes and goes,

Back to reach the beach;

Sands of time in lines,

Waiting on an hourglass.

Time comes and goes,

Then returns again to where it came;

Back and forth and round about,

Then it is here again and with us.

Time comes and goes,

Looking wherever you can find it;

Working hard for every bit,

Trying to stay and remain fit.

Time comes and goes,

Whatever you like and think,

I know you just want another drink,

Pretty purple, pity pink.

Time comes and goes,

Sick, well or indifferent;

Right, wrong or mixed,

Nice kind or mean bad.

Signed,

Happy having.

25 Money Might

Money might,

And money is;

Nice and kind,

Bad for business.

Money might,

Every night;

Bright light,

Right knight.

Money might,

Make you happy;

Or make you sad,

Or just plain glad.

Money might,

Be good or bad;

What you use and had,

Remembering memories.

Money might,

See at times,

Seas and oceans,

Rivers and lakes.

Money might,

Heaven and hell,

Skies and paradise,

Sweet coconut slice.

Signed,

Doing dishes.

26 Free Flowing Words

Free flowing words,

Rhyming couplets birds;

Listening ears and heard,

Hears easy and hard.

27 Watch Me Write

Watch me write,

Trying to get it right;

In the truth and the light,

Might be quite a sight.

Watch me write,

It is to your delight;

A fashion and fight,

Love getting it right.

Watch me write,

Look straight and sight;

Time writing to right,

Being a bit bright.

Watch me write,

Types down the words;

Truth that I have heard,

Makes proof of herds.

Watch me write,

See clearly with your eyes;

The colour of the skies,

Buying French fries.

Watch me write,

Bought home at night;

Stayed till dawn light,

Sunrise on a new day.

Signed,

Rainbow sunset.

28 Get The Right Idea

Get the right idea,

Then give it back to me;

Turning and rewarding,

So that we all can see.

Get the right idea,

Brighter and better;

Stronger to the letter,

Righter and writer.

Get the right idea,

Just off the top of my head;

Going back to sleep in bed,

Keeping instep and instead.

Get the right idea,

You do it right for me,

I get a picture that I can see,

Best if we share it alike.

Get the right idea,

Give it to you and then me;

A cup of tea being for free,

Teaching me how to grow a tree.

Get the right idea,

Perspective down in words;

Selective of what I have heard,

Decisions for dishes and birds.

Signed,

29 The Quick Step

The quick step,

Or the foxtrot;

Pride of erin,

Or Virginia wheel.

The quick step,

Waltz or a polka;

The quick step,

Take time for two,

Around and again we go.

The quick step,

Walking up behind;

Talking off my mind,

Leaning my head inclined.

The quick step,

Then I took a breath;

Breathing free and easy,

Any oxygen as needed.

The quick step,

Backwards and forwards;

Staight up ahead,

Back again and around.

Signed,

Two dance a line.

30 Dash and Back

Dash and back,

Cash and crack;

Trash and truck,

Bash and buck.

Dash and back,

Swimming little duck;

Tastes lots of luck,

Train on a track.

Dash and back,

Run just up there,

Back around and where,

Standing on end my hair.

Dash and back,

Touch the wall and return;

Turn around and learn,

Better to drink water than burn.

Dash and back,

I ran far for that,

Got a lift home,

Thank God for love.

Dash and back,

Carrying a sack,

Santa Claus slay,

Kids at Christmas.

Signed,

Enjoying life.

32 Life Is Too Lonely

Life is too lonely,

When you are on your own all the time;

Finding time to get out and about,

With other people and friends.

Life is too lonely,

I just keep on wanting to do it my way;

Instead of looking first towards God,

I just need to give it all to the Lord in prayer.

Life is too lonely,

Not sure of what is going to happen next;

I will just have to play this one by ear,

More people, more time, another year.

Life is too lonely,

The one thing just out of my control;

Trying to put one foot in the door of somewhere else,

Instead of getting married and sharing my life with a wife.

Life is too lonely,

Not really worth complaining about too much;

You just have to get on with it as such,

Inviting someone over to have lunch.

Life is too lonely,

But I get that idea all of the time,

Sharing, caring with someone special that I might find,

Being less lonesome and having someone else on my mind.

Signed,

Better together.

Two people caring.

Eating together,

Enjoying a good meal;

Joined together loyally,

Two sexes legally.

Eating together,

The minds employ;

Two lives enjoy,

God blesses equally.

Eating together,

Over one table;

The cloth and the label,

The soup and the ladel.

Eating together,

First and second courses;

Main meal and desert,

Love mixed and blended.

Eating together,

Fashioned for service;

Two white material serviettes,

Silver rings two hold them.

Signed,

Signed and dined.

46 Sharing Life Together

Sharing life together,

Love mixed and entwined;

Doing things for each other,

Enjoying each others company.

Sharing life together,

We're all in this the same,

One big world full of fame,

At the end of the day is just a game.

Sharing life together,

Things going well or tough;

Helping each other through the muck,

Beautiful relationships just our luck.

Sharing life together,

All on earth in this our time;

Love in the air and no more crime,

As it all seems to fit into this rhyme.

Sharing life together,

Mutual and beneficial circumstances;

Working everything out in the wash,

Whether the weather, a working watch.

Sharing life together,

Loving conditions, all is well;

No more war and happy experiences,

Peace and joy to all concerned.

Signed,

Eternal one.

47 Tired and Sleeping

Tired and sleeping,

Not awake at this time;

Working well along the line,

Dreaming in heaven in love.

Tired and sleeping,

Enjoying good healing rest;

The benefits of relaxation,

Head on the pillow asleep.

Tired and sleeping,

I have been working very hard;

Too much of the good life,

Time to sleep it all of.

Tired and sleeping,

Bored and crazy out of my mind;

Asleep like a dog on a log,

Getting just what I deserve.

Tired and sleeping,

Lieing on the bed in love;

Scent, sent from heaven above,

Sense and cents on the wings of a dove.

Tired and sleeping,

Starting to snap out of it now;

Time to get on with the rest of life,

Surrendered to God to find me a wife.

Signed,

Heavens love.

48 We Can Do It

We can do it,

Not you and me alone;

Yes I am sure we can,

Make ends meet in God's plan.

We can do it,

Working hard together;

A pound of flesh and leather,

The world's weather, whether.

We can do it,

It all fits in with the job,

No mistakes or objections,

Working for a certain future.

We can do it,

All hands make light work;

We are in this thing together,

The words, the fitting feather.

We can do it,

As God sees things work out;

Putting the pieces bit by bit,

Just how it ought to be saw fit.

We can do it,

The project now nearing completion;

Prospects at the end of the competition,

Winning the prize by finishing.

Signed,

In perspective.

49 Yes, Let Us

Yes, let us,

Yet lettuce;

Red tomatos,

Cucumber.

Yes, let us,

Allow things to come together;

Being made right in the process,

Working towards the finished goal.

Yes, let us,

Complete the work under the sun;

Working together, one by one,

What is too hard is left undone.

Yes, let us,

See how things come together;

Walking, waiting, pleasant weather,

A stitch in time saves nine.

Yes, let us,

Were only trying to do our best;

Its not too hard, forget the rest,

Striving, achieving, taxing, stress.

Yes, let us,

Work together to achieve the goal;

Not looking backwards, sideways or behind,

It all works out in the glorious wash.

Signed,

A bit each.

50 What Are You Saying

What are you saying?

It makes a bit of sense to me;

How to have nice afternoon tea,

Biscuits, cake or something else.

What are you saying?

Is that what you really think of me;

Your saying things kind and nice about me,

I thankyou for being a good friend.

What are you saying?

Is that how you really want it to be;

Working hard to achieve something for me,

With a bit of luck it all will be free.

What are you saying?

I like the way that you do your hair;

I love looking at you when your in prayer,

God grant us peace with the fun of the fair.

What are you saying?

Have you had a good look at yourself?

I don't worry about me for myself,

Now I have read all the books on the shelf.

What are you saying?

Are you seeing things clearly the way I see them?

Are you looking in the mirror and appearing there?

No, I look at you and see all the beauty then.

Signed,

Understand answers.

CHAPTER 6 Well, We Are Now Off

51 Travelling Again

Travelling well,

Around the world;

Up and down the coast,

Around Australia.

Travelling well,

Saving up the money;

Finding places to go,

Somewhere different from where I know.

Travelling well,

Staying safe and learning;

Secure, tight and right,

In the steadfast love of God's sight.

Travelling well,

Outback and Barrier Reef;

Queensland and Tasmania,

Darwin in The Northern Territory.

Travelling well,

Loving, seeing and staying;

Home again safe and sound,

Experiences of a lifetime.

Travelling well,

Enjoying true freedom;

Memories to keep and cherish,

Remember the good times and the fun.

Signed,

Another place.

52 Life On The Road

Life on the road,

Happy anywhere else;

Looking for love and happiness,

Travelling safely anywhere.

Life on the road,

Splendid and pleasurable;

Treasured memories forever,

Liking distant other places.

Life on the road,

Backpacking and motels;

Summer sun, hot as hell,

Time on the beach as well.

Life on the road,

Just keep on travelling;

No where just like home,

Roving distant places.

Life on the road,

Fixed for a lifetime;

Pleasure in a rhyme,

Try and read between the lines.

Life on the road,

Music band and singers;

Travelling roadshow forever,

The carnival is over now.

Signed,

Head on the pillow.

53 Getting Wherever

Getting wherever,

Anywhere you want to go;

Places unnamed and still there,

Ready for anything you like.

Getting wherever,

Honolulu, Alaska, Paris;

Miami, Las Vegas, London,

Whatever takes your delight.

Getting wherever,

Around the world and still going;

Places you know and are knowing,

Fancy anywhere that is nice.

Getting wherever,

The top of your job field,

Any career change or move,

Working hard to stay in the game.

Getting wherever,

Just going out on the weekend;

Picnics and walks in the park,

At the beach or on the river in a canoe.

Getting wherever,

Heaven for those who love paradise;

New house up or down the coast,

Trying hard to stay out of hell.

Signed,

Distant places.

54 See What We Have Got

See what we have got,

Been shopping for a lot;

It did not matter who or what,

In the summer when it is hot.

See what we have got,

Books sitting there on the shelf;

Ones you have read and haven't,

Time goes by to read them all.

See what we have got,

Money in the bank or not;

Time on your hands a lot,

Remembering, forgetting and forgot.

See what we have got,

God knows what is a lot;

Share and share alike with your stuff,

All this work, I am out of puff.

See what we have got,

What you know and what you don't;

What you will and what you won't,

Who you are and who your not.

See what we have got,

The love of time and happiness;

Progress is fine and restlessness,

Money in the bank, forgetfulness.

Signed,

Everything you need.

55 Have A Bit More

Have a bit more,

Working hard for it;

Staying awake and fit,

Earning interest in the bank.

Have a bit more,

Stay intouch and sure;

Amounts adding up by law,

Steadily increasing always.

Have a bit more,

Time on your hands for fun;

Still alive out there under the sun,

Don't get burnt or you will be the got one.

Have a bit more,

Love investing in a relationship;

God in heaven or partner on earth,

Together we have an understanding.

Have a bit more,

Sex in the city, pity you can't;

Just does not seem to fit right,

Working hard day and night.

Have a bit more,

Stars twinkling with their white light,

The atmosphere is such a bright sight,

The earth a planet spinning around.

Signed,

Endless possibilities.

56 Enjoy The Ride

Enjoy the ride,

Life is a beach,

A surfboard on a wave,

Noon at full tide.

Enjoy the ride,

Bus going to Brisbane;

Train left for Melbourne,

Sydney ferries on the harbour.

Enjoy the ride,

Pushing a bike up hill,

Sailing down the other side,

Feel the free air through your hair.

Enjoy the ride,

Plane going to London;

Maybe Los Angeles instead,

40,000 feet in the sky.

Enjoy the ride,

Light aircraft or paraglide;

Windsurfing or waterskiing,

Skateboard or electric scooter.

Enjoy the ride,

Getting a lift in a car,

Wherever you want to go,

Or a lift in a building and home again.

Signed,

Good impression.

57 Making Happening

Making happening,

Working to turn things around;

Earning money the easyway,

The hard thing is to keep it.

Making happening,

Poetry in motion;

Avoiding a comotion,

The trains locomotion.

Making happening,

Planes flying through the sky;

Heaven up there is really high,

Paradise staring your straight in the eye.

Making happening,

Peace and much happiness;

Love centered relationship,

It all just revolves around you.

Making happening,

Driving down the long highway;

Striving hard to do it myway,

Better loving God and doing it His way.

Making happening,

Lines going on right down the page;

Its what you own in lifes stage,

Learning wisdom and the best way to gauge.

Signed,

Things done.

58 Consider Together

Consider together,

Time when things go equallly,

Matching up very neatly,

Quite quick to defeat me.

Consider together,

Partnerships in heaven;

Living to one hundred,

One eleven or one twenty.

Consider together,

Best times to be had are shared;

Loving the most to be compared,

Speaking to God in eternal prayer.

Consider together,

Looking, caring and relating;

Joined for life and still debating,

Things in the past and present.

Consider together,

The future looks good for all;

Smiling small or standing tall,

Binding books on the big ball.

Consider together,

Loneliness and the whether;

Weather loving caring together,

Signs of life and pleasantness.

Signed,

Keeping in touch.

59 One More Time

One more time,

Things have to work;

Linking all together,

A poem in a rhyme.

One more time,

Hot summers day;

Your going your own way,

Hoping everything will all pay.

One more time,

Watching out for others;

Caring, sisters and brothers,

Parents, fathers and mothers.

One more time,

Orange juice or lime;

Fruit salad is mine,

Watermelon and pineapple.

One more time,

Hot soup in Winter.

Hot chocolate by the fire,

Christmas Carols and the choir.

One more time,

Roast dinner my favorite;

Lamb, pork or beef,

Duck, chicken or fish.

Signed,

Ham and turkey.

60 Finishing Strong

Finishing strong,

Don't stop till it hurts;

Just try to keep on going,

Till the ends all meet.

Finishing strong,

At the end of the long road;

Carrying the heavy load,

Your not fishing for a toad.

Finishing strong,

Believing in yourself is not wrong;

Says me to you for so long,

Time rhyming in a song.

Finishing strong,

Many run the race to win,

Only one can finish first,

Its a matter of the best and the worst.

Finishing strong,

Living hard and quite long;

The easy way is sometimes wrong,

The best times are days you belong.

Finishing strong,

Another poem and song;

The book has come to an end,

To my new found friend.

Signed,

God amends.

FINAL WORD

Got Away With That One

I got away with that one, however long it took, another book bursting at the seams to be read, understood and interpreted. Whatever is right and cannot be manipulated, when things just seem to fall into place and should not be tampered with. It is just simply amazing how it all comes together in the end, whether you are a new reader or a longtime friend of Parsifal Enterprises. You start to get the picture of just how it all falls into place at the end of each book. This one, Walking Talking was and is about life and the universe in general, how sometimes you have just got to have faith for it all to fit together. Nevertheless we have uncovered the burning passion and desire of yet another book of written poetry. When words come to your head and just fit down the page and it is and was like going for a walk with a friend and discovering the truths of life in general and what makes and relates to harmonious and relative material for living. The concept of relationship which has fitted in with some parts of the book, especially in some of the chapters and try to relate not only to others but to the concept of working together in likewise response. Anyway I got away with that one despite some slow going for a while there when things simply would not come to my head and sort of a lazy lethargic waiting strategy for all the best parts and places to come together and fall into place just when and where they were as needed. I hope that you don't mind my being intimidating and perplexed with some words in the work, but as it was all just happening on spontaneous and intimate sequence, you just have to take what you get in the end. Anyway that opens up a new world and challenge now to get writing again in another book, I hope that you enjoyed this one, Parsifal Walking Talking and that you can add it to your repertoire of books being read. I hope that you will all let it be said that I got away with that one. God bless you all untill next time. Love always, Darel.
