

She is perfect in every kind and fascinating way,

No matter what weather and connecting all day;

For romance and love the passion that you pray,

To listen to and understand with words you do play.

She is so beautiful in her own sweet simple way,

With a heart for sure service and is quick all the day;

And when it comes to dinner with chocolate and roses to pay,

Then off to bed to talk about love and to long stay.

She is a good women a wife for your lifestyle,

To grow and to nurture and flourish for a while;

Then the kids come along and the family comes first,

And there is time for relationships with value and worth.

She sits by the light up reading during the night,

And you think to yourself what a good thing by the light;

As the moonbeam shines down through the window at twilight,

The sun comes at dawn and the sex is always just right.

She is the perfect match and the marriage is in heaven,

And to hell with the potatoes and don't eat all the devon;

But dessert is so sweet and each morning day greet,

As you walk along the path holding hands and moving feet.

She is the best one and the one and only to have,

Give her your all and this perfect match will save;

While love is in the air and the waves at the beach,

Rest in her arms and from her unusual ways let teach.
