

A reason to live, a reason to die,
God needs a reason t don't know why;
The beauty the bells the bright birds chirp,
The children a choice and chance at church life.

A reason to live, something to believe in,
Grace in a season and people to win;
A passion for a heart ad a reason to live,
A romance in season and things that can give.

A reason to live and life is for living,
People are loving and God is in Heaven;
Fruit in a season it is great for giving,
A reason to live sun in blue skies.

A reason for living goodness in the air,
Seasons in the sun and kindness is leading;
People in prayer, a beautiful real care,
Books on the shelf, summer nights reading.

A reason for living a day at the beach,
The peace of earth Sundays to teach;
The kingdom of God, creation bows down,
Truth and prosperity, the city and town.

A reason for living, Christ on the thrown,
God if forgiving, forgetting sins of His own;
People remembering, real life is free,
God has the victory, he will judge me.

Signed,

Perfect Weather
