

How very beautiful,
Is everything on earth;
How very beautiful,
Is god's gift of birth.

How very beautiful,
The flowers in the spring;
How very beautiful,
To smell such a thing.

How very beautiful,
Is God's heart for man;
How very beautiful,
Is man and woman his plan.

How very beautiful,
Are mountains to the stream;
How very beautiful,
Does river to ocean seem.

How very beautiful,
Is a bowl of fruit to eat;
How very beautiful,
Is freshly umbered meat.

How very beautiful,
Is god who's in my heart;
How very beautiful,
Is the thought of love to start.

Signed,

Precious sweet life
