

Sharing is caring for all to gain,
Sharing is unselfish and shows little pain;
Sharing is for lovers who wish to grow,
Sharing is spending time with God we seek and know.

Sharing is having patients when friends go wrong.
Sharing is the life blood of spreading a new sprong;
Sharing is for people who need to have each other,
Sharing is to have love for your sister and brother.

Sharing is eternal for those who get married,
Sharing is for picking up someone who needs to be carried;
Sharing is helping the sick through thick and thin,
Sharing is for everyone that one day all might win.

Sharing is special in hat possibilities become realities,
Sharing is for building and occupying steel cities;
Sharing is for understanding what we do best,
Bu most of all sharing is giving each other time to rest.
