

Life is a gift to live with one chance,
That god is love and wants the best for me;
It's hard to believe that god could really love me,
But I have one chance one life one love of it.

Life is a game like a stage where we play our part,
With the truth and living are as love to the heart;
The thing of it is that you must do your best,
Because there's only one chance in life of beating the rest.

One life to do and live all that you can,
One chance in time to love and fulfil your plan;
You must understand that there is a chance of failure,
But this is not permanent but must be reassessed and reabled.

Now as you turn and learn and reach for the truth,
With the sky as the limit and universe as the roof;
You reach for the stars and pass out into space,
In the course of the race and reach for each place.

And as you behold and take and cherish all that you have,
Take hold of the God and remember all he gave;
Because he has your best interest in all that you do,
Just know that the one chance, life and love is given to you.

Now I assess all these things which I will relinquish,
For you to discover and discern and distinguish;
For in life the plan is to finishing the first place,
From the start to the end your love life and changed face.

Signed,

A constant star
