

Amidst the power of dark and doom,
Of money and meaning and sudden gloom;
Comes alike the life of the left light,
To cheer and encourage and make you bright.

And things that go wrong and problems that happen,
Are not worth all the worry or bouting and snapping;
Where trouble and turmoil turn around into other days.

And live in the life of the love and left light,
Where things that are dismal ad people who work out right;
For passion is a crime of a kind of infinite romance,
Where the winners learnt to dance with grace and chance.

Then as prayer fills the air in the love life of heaven,
And the light is left low with your lady till eleven;
When time is so right for kissing, music of night,
Because the kings with the queen as a gentlemanly knight.

So lead all you can now once you've established the plan,
To marry and live in the love life of the left light;
For joyous is being with your partner the right man,
In the honey moon of happiness and lords beautiful sight.

Well now as I finish and the truth of light distinguish,
The one who I want and will have me not relinquish;
To forever hold hands in the perfection of truth,
The brilliance of marriage and wedding left life proof.

Signed,

So on and so forth
