

How much I love you my sweet princess,
How much I miss you longing kiss;
How much I love you my sweet princess,
How alone I am and how much I miss.

How much I love you my sweet princess,
How sad I am you cannot be near ;
How much I love you my sweet princess,
All those thoughts of losing you I fear.

How much I love you my sweet princess,
Lost in a world where you are not near;
How much I love you my sweet princess,
As sad as can be now nearly a tear.

How much I love you my sweet princess,
Gone and forgotten your love was so dear;
How much I love you my sweet princess,
Waiting around for you to turn and paper.

How much I love you my sweet princess,
Deep in depression and in death I draw near;
How much I love you my sweet princess,
Hating each moment I have to spend here.

How much I love you my sweet princess,
Waiting for the moment to whisper love in your ear;
How much I love you my sweet princess,
Just longing to listen to your voice me hear.
