

A love to last what could it be,
At last a love for someone like me;
The love to have to beat all loves,
That's soft and virgin like eternal doves.

A love to last I give to all,
The love to have you just fall;
At a time when needed so perfectly;
A love that won't sway from being heavenly.

A love so strong you desire no tears,
A love so strong it dives away all fears;
This love to last until eternity happens,
A love so perfect designed in an endless pattern.

A love to last through all your dreams,
A love surpassed only by prayers supreme;
The love that comes between man and women,
A love after death when the doors left open.

Love and romance well into the night,
Of love and kisses standing under a light;
A love to last that god made true,
Of a lasting relationship with only 1 like you.

A love to last well it just can't be beat,
A love with peace and beauty all complete;
A love to last god that's all I ask,
A love to live and a life to live.

Signed,

For my love
