

My love comes back at me,
Yes it always comes back to me;
I needed things that I went and did,
And still though I tried, I remain a kid.

My love always comes back to me,
Yes it always comes back at me;
Since I can remember I've always been,
Searching for answers and returning unclean.

My love always comes back at me,
It's the sin down deep in my heart;
That let me lend and gives me back love,
I glad that you know and understand my heart.

My love always comes back to me,
It's the true part of the deal;
That lets me feel good and makes me unreal,
So that's why I love you, right back to me.

My love always comes back to me,
There no better way on earth;
Than to trust in the lord and not yourself,
Because that makes me feel better not selfish.

My love always come back to me,
Because my heart always needs to know;
My love always comes back to me,
Because I've got God and he always sees.

Signed,

Thank you Lord for the return
