

Having a think over the sink,
And all he wants is another drink;
While she does the dishes in pink,
As he eats her dishes having a think.

Now the pink was a detergent I think,
That quickly went down the drain in the sink;
Just enough time and room to have a drink,
As long as it wasn't that detergent in pink.

And as she was wearing pink,
While the detergent went down the sink;
She had to stop for a drink,
While he had a thought about the pink she was think.

So he was clever enough to have a link,
With the pink and drink she could sink;
While the drink all went down the sink,
And I think they end up with a link.
