

This one is for you my love,
A love that must come true;
This one is for you my lord,
A love that's overdue.

This one this life this breath in me,
A hope of glory for eternity;
This vision of paradise beyond myself,
The future unfolding all by itself

This one, I wrote to express my love,
To put pen to paper of what's in my heart,
I knew deep down your love was true,
That through the grey clouds skies were blue,

This one is for you, you know,
Of wondrous things above;
Of joy and plenty in everything,
And the mercy of God's love.

This one I write is for you I think,
And I hope you understand;
That when the words in twine in rhyme,
The lord controls all lands.

The one is for you my love,
These thoughts of endless years;
That you might see the heart in me,
To appear and reign through all my fears.

Signed,

For only you