

You are a character I said to the other character,

You are a bloke who is a character and a real ideal car actor;

Some people have the character and keep it all to themself,

But that does not show good character because it's not theirself.

Now I am a bit of a character myself and I'll let you in on a story,

Of how Jesus rose from the dead and God came back from glory;

You see the character of God is passed right down the line,

Like the lamb on the throne with it's head down like a lion.

You see you have got to show a little character to get anywhere in life,

To stand up for what you believe in and take forth a wife;

Now the challenge is to live up to the new opposite half,

Where the character is vital but she'll just give a laugh.

Now it is the time for a whale of a tale out of the stories at sea,

Where the captain is the character who looks right down on me;

Like in a hit in the head I wake up the next morning in heaven,

More than a hundred years ago and it's past twenty seven or eleven.

The show must go on and the first character will be the last,

As if you're fishing for stars and it's histories kingdoms past;

Character is a way of being kind and gentle yet, nice but not too tough,

When the boat starts to rock and the seas get quiet rough enough.

So as now this poem about character is ending how should it really be?

Should I have told you all about the attributes of God and values to see;

Like the principles of honesty and courtesy or loyalty with the charitable heart,

But what would have been clever is that there's plenty more with a big heart.

Signed,

The way that I am
