

Our God reigns and he reigns with power and might,

It's glory is overall and his majesty is bright light;

Hi beautiful creation is supreme and goes to the ends of the earth,

His love is a bountifulness of brilliance and make all thing worth.

Our God reigns and his peace rest in our souls and minds,

Wherever you do look and see and all in so different kinds;

He is our father who cares and looks down to lead us home,

To find where we've been hiding and sought us out where we roam.

Our God reigns and his heavens reach down to fill the temple,

Where sinners come and beg for mercy and forgiveness from temptations;

And he rise high up above us all and above the sky beyond,

Where one can find a love and prayer, as God to us becomes fond.

Our God reigns and his might is everywhere for all to know and see,

And he rises to meet us in every occasion beyond the wild blue sea;

And as his loves come to touch our hearts and reach into our lives;

There in rest we find him comfort as a sanctuary he freely gives.

Our God reigns in the body of Christ, the church of Zion forever,

And there are many who find their rest and shelter wherever;

And the clouds are filled by his holy presence unto us in heaven,

And God reigns over all of us overlooking the earth so very heavy.

Our God reigns in all the lands, nations and countries wide,

And each city in his dominion and place he demonstrates from each side;

And as he tells us to behave and not to wander down the path astray,

But look to him who guides and leads to listen and hear and obey.
