

DONATIONS

Idea !!!

If you have appreciated Parsifal Enterprises,

You might like to make a gift!.

I have successfully opened a bank account, which I am now giving you the opportunity to donate to my work and efforts in the running of the website and for general reading of the books. If your kind heart is feeling generous enough, then you would perhaps like to contribute to the work and alleviate some of the pain and suffering that you may have seen me as Parsifal go through. This is only a voluntary thing and you should not feel at all imposed upon in any way to pay money unless you want to, this still remains a free website to the public, but some endeavours by me to recover costs for the work you all enjoy and for the love that goes into it, would be nice.

Well I hope that you embrace the new addition to the website with a donation section that you can now contribute and get behind the spirit of the work financially and see some of the previous and new work come into existence more quickly. This work will be on going indefinitely and if you feel apart of Parsifal Enterprises as I am sure that a lot of you do by now, who have followed over the years or in and of more recent times. Then this is just a new opportunity for you to show some appreciation for what you have gained out of the website. Please don't feel sorry for me or patronise me in anyway, but you can show appreciation and participate in the glory of a set of heavenly inspired poems and academic literature that may have been your friend or inspired you in some wonderful way, so that you can cherish and share in that glory and fathom some of the love of God that he has shown through me over the years to you. God is a wonderfully good God and money is only a vehicle that enables us to do more work for Him. I don't waste money and any contributions you give, you can be sure that they will be wisely used to magnify and glorify God's Kingdom.

If you would like to make a donation or contribution to this work, then you can make a direct transfer to my account. If you would like a guideline on amounts, $5 for reading a Poetry Book and $10 for a General Literature Book would be nice and acceptable, consider to the news as free to you, though any donations for my time and effort could be contributed between $20 and $100 annually or whatever you feel lead to make. Thankyou for your time and consideration and may you have a truly wonderful day. Darel.

Poetry To Be Put To Music In Songs

IÃ,Â am now advertising for any clever person who composes music and would like to use the words of any of my poems for material in musical compositions. You would have to do justice to the work and offer me a share of the royalties for sales and concerts, but if you are willing and creative and you think that you can use the words or make something out of them musically for songs or theatre production or a concert, then please feel free to let me know and contact me for written approval. I am confident that the work is of a suitable quality and a standard that anything that you feel that you can use would be well recieved by the public in your musical composition.
