

I know in my heart that it is Jesus Christ I believe,

And that one day will come and my salvation I'll need;

I don't find it hard to believe in this God,

For his love is not harmful or rotten or odd.

He cares for each one of us that ask him and say,

A prayer for forgiveness in any fashion or way;

And it's a decision for him that not one can delay,

And must just take up their cross and follow each day.

He must really be out there this I know in my heart,

He's so gentle and kind, yet so clever and smart;

It touches me deeply to know and trust him,

And he makes my life happy and all problems seem dim.

Now I can't see the point in not believing in this,

When all seems like magic and is eternally bliss;

I count it my privilege to suffer and share,

All my sins and burdens to Jesus Christ in prayer.

Christians you see try to give and not take,

And care just for kindness in whatever they make;

Now it's Christ that's the gift we need to conceive,

The very life of the person that cannot deceive.

Christians I now ask you to seek and to dare,

And to accept this challenge to speak forth and share;

This gospel message so full of truth and the life,

That leads us to heaven and shines forth the light.

Signed,
