

After all the pain and sin,

The suffering to beat and win;

I'm still alive to tell the story,

I've survived so long and seek the glory

God is good and God is great,

God's forgiveness and love relate;

You can't go on a live forever,

If you're caught doing wrong and knowing never.

Still alive after all these years,

Finding the time and the grace appears;

Like the twelve disciples, who followed Christ,

The truth we trust must not be spiced.

The problem is in following the ways of the devil,

Where sinning is rife and the earth ends up level;

To be still alive and win the prize,

Is the victory fulfilled when the sun doesn't rise.

So where in the world do we go from here,

The earth so big for the words to appear;

So many books and so many things to do,

And lots to be said for it all to come true.

Now is the time and the chance to succeed,

A change in time to hear, listen and read;

So atone what was wrong and be redeemed for the future,

To make eternity now and keep the truth true
