

Creation so beautiful, a wonder to behold,

The gift of life, so glorious and gold;

In the likeness of God it's all perfect unity,

As is friendship in the church and the community.

In the likeness of God we know it's all right,

As in kindness and loveliness we seek the true light;

For life is found at the heart of it all,

Whether you're big or little, tall or you're small.

In the likeness of God we work and we play,

To succeed in this life by night or by day;

With music and money there is much to address,

As he answers our prayers and has to fix the big mess.

In the likeness of God there's letters and words,

In amongst all these lines they are better than birds;

Or ants and rice when I'm starting to get bored,

That answers twice and doubles the reward.

In the likeness of God it's just what will be,

As he talks and he listens to the little ones like me;

Look to the future where surely God must be there,

Not knowing what I'll be wearing and simply not where.

In the likeness of God I'll finish up this rhyme,

And hope that my tomorrow will be plentiful with time;

Now the moment is upon us and the minute is at hand,

As if heavenward I travel to be rich, blessed and grand.
