

A thought in time to save us all,

A thought in time to rhyme and call;

A thought in time of the here and now,

A thought in time of wondering how.

A thought in time of things to come,

A thought in time of what I've done;

A thought in time of things of love,

A thought in time of God above.

A thought in time to travel to space,

A thought in time of the human race;

A thought in time of who is me,

A thought in time of life so free.

A thought in time to win the lost,

A thought in time to count the cost;

A thought in time of what I believe,

A thought in time of what I can achieve.

A thought in time of happening true,

A thought in time of only you;

A thought in time of thinking I'll die,

A thought in time of having to try.

A thought in time of beauty everywhere,

A thought in time so perfectly fair;

A thought in time of eternal prayer,

A thought in time of living on air.

Signed,

The earth my world.
