

Harder and harder as the years go on,

Harder and harder the sun still has shone;

Harder and harder, not a day goes by,

Harder and harder and I still have to try.

Harder and harder to have heaven on earth,

Harder and harder to make things worth;

Harder and harder; Is God really there?

Harder and harder for things to compare.

Harder and harder, just what will become,

Harder and harder we all will want some;

Harder and harder; Will it ever be right?

Harder and harder to read and write.

Harder and harder with death and destruction,

Harder and harder for the earth's reconstruction;

Harder and harder all I need to do is endure,

Harder and harder till I'm finally sure.

Harder and harder it's a new constant battle,

Harder and harder my head is starting to rattle;

Harder and harder, knee deep and still sinking,

Harder and harder and I'm in trouble still thinking.

Harder and harder now things in the light,

Harder and harder it will all work out right;

Harder and harder I'm staying out of strife,

Harder and harder to perfect out this life.

Signed,

To make it easy.
