

Live on graciously and with a full peace of mind,

Not to worry whether you've been clever or kind;

But practice the law with full confidence of heart,

Surely you must, whether you're dumb or you're smart.

Live on in a world full of beautiful total bliss,

Remember not to kill and remember the kiss;

It's fair and reasonable to have this right thought,

For in life it's all money and things that you bought.

Live on around you in the memory of the soul,

To places you've been since young till you're old;

There's a component in life that lives without pills,

That the television or computer has seen all your ills.

Live on in heaven in that place full of love,

Where rainbows and sunshine are with God above;

Consider it gracious to have brilliance at hand,

For the truth of the nation and wonderful land.

Live on independently through Christ and with God,

For the purposeful journey which you travel not odd;

Because around and about is the time of creation,

That you can tie and will link to form a relation.

Live on with ability and knowledge of work,

Done in the right spirit and with an innocent word;

Well now you have time and a chance to repeat,

To relive and relinquish that final heartbeat.

Everything in eternity.
